

Affiliated Monitors, Inc. Announces the Hiring of Rodney A. Grandon

Former Air Force Executive to Serve as Managing Director, Government Services

NEWS PROVIDED BY

Affiliated Monitors, Inc.

Jan 17, 2017 08:50 ET

BOSTON, Jan. 17, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Affiliated Monitors, Inc. (AMI) today announced the hiring of Rodney A. Grandon as Managing Director, Government Services. Grandon was most recently a member of the Department of the Air Force's Senior Executive Service, serving as the Deputy General Counsel for Contractor Responsibility and Conflict Resolution in Washington, D.C.

"Throughout his career, Rod has demonstrated a depth of knowledge and integrity that has earned the respect of his peers in government as well as the attorneys and companies who have had matters before him," said Vincent L. DiCianni, Esq., President and Founder, AMI. "Rod's perspectives reflect his years of service with the Air Force, with an expert understanding of the compliance challenges associated with conducting business in a complex and highly regulated environment. His experience will enhance and expand AMI's expertise in a wide variety of governmental regulatory actions," added DiCianni.

Rodney A. Grandon, Managing Director, Government Services, Affiliated Monitors, Inc.

"AMI is the best in its field, firmly grounded in independence and integrity. I am proud to join the team," said Grandon. "As the Air Force's Suspending and Debarring Official, I have experienced first hand AMI's efforts to bridge mistrust and misunderstanding between government and industry. I know what it takes to help companies build the types of ethics and compliance programs necessary to achieve business success in a complex operational and regulatory environment," said Grandon, "I look forward to working with AMI to help companies be better participants in the federal marketplace, and assist government agencies in taking appropriate steps to promote and to protect the public's interests in government financial transactions and regulatory enforcement actions, as well as civil and criminal enforcement actions."

Grandon will be based in Washington, D.C., increasing AMI's physical presence in the National Capital Area.

Grandon most recently served as the Air Force's Deputy General Counsel for Contractor Responsibility and Conflict Resolution where he was responsible for providing legal advice concerning contractor responsibility matters to senior Air Force and DoD leadership, as well as leading the Air Force's Procurement Fraud Remedies Program. Mr. Grandon also had responsibility for the Air Force's Alternative Dispute Resolution/Conflict Resolution Program. Grandon also served as the Chief of Procurement Law and Chief Trial Attorney for the U.S. Coast Guard.

About Affiliated Monitors, Inc. (AMI)

Started in 2004, AMI was the first company in the United States to focus on providing top-quality, independent integrity monitoring services across a wide range of regulated industries and professions. AMI evaluates and monitors business practices for compliance with federal, state, local and international laws and regulations, and recommends improvements to strengthen a company's ethical culture and achieve sustainable compliance. AMI serves U.S. and international corporations, government contractors, non-profits, wholesale and retail establishments, small and medium- sized businesses, and individual licensed professionals. AMI has served more than 500 clients during the past decade. Among the matters it is handling, Affiliated Monitors provides independent oversight for federal agencies in matters involving AT&T, Herbalife and Louis Berger International. www.affiliatedmonitors.com

Media Contact:
Lyndsey Medsker
202-557-5328

SOURCE Affiliated Monitors, Inc.

<http://www.prnewswire.com/news-releases/affiliated-monitors-inc-announces-the-hiring-of-rodney-a-grandon-300391821.html>