Maureen Cullum is Executive Director of Corporate Monitoring and Compliance Services at Affiliated Monitors, Inc. (AMI) Ms. Cullum has spent her career as a senior finance executive responsible for managing accounting and financial planning functions within start-up companies and corporate organizations. In these roles, Ms. Cullum focused on developing and maintaining sound internal and financial controls while operating with the highest standards of integrity, ethics, and compliance. Her experience building finance and accounting organizations, evaluating and establishing complex legal and tax structures, and managing internal controls and compliance within companies allows Ms. Cullum to bring unique financial and operations management expertise to AMI’s monitoring engagements.

Ms. Cullum has over 30 years of experience as a senior financial executive for media, entertainment, and life sciences companies, with most of that time spent serving as the CFO and statutory director or officer of start-up joint ventures and small and medium-sized enterprises in both Europe and the U.S. She was the CFO on original management teams for both HBO and NYNEX Yellow Pages in Poland, which included management of fraud investigations and audits as well as participation in anti-monopoly commission reviews. She served as COO and CFO for a movie channel joint venture owned by Sony and Disney in the Netherlands and UK. She also worked for Sony’s International TV Finance group monitoring its India Networks operations, involving Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) training for local staff. Recently, Ms. Cullum’s experience in the life science space included CFO roles for medical device and cancer diagnostic emerging-stage businesses in Colorado and California.

Ms. Cullum is well positioned to add value to AMI’s corporate and compliance monitoring offerings through a career of both hands-on and strategic financial management roles in various industries and cultures.

Ms. Cullum received her BS degree from the Boston College School of Management. She also holds an MBA from Bentley College and is a Certified Compliance and Ethics Professional (CCEP).
