

GERALD J. COYNE

MANAGING DIRECTOR OF STATE
MONITORING SERVICES
PROVIDENCE, RI

(866) 201-0903

gcoyne@affiliatedmonitors.com

Jerry Coyne is Managing Director of State Monitoring Services at Affiliated Monitors, Inc. At Affiliated Monitors, Mr. Coyne oversees monitoring agreements with corporations, healthcare entities and individuals.

Mr. Coyne has over thirty-five years of experience as an attorney in both the public and private sectors, most of that time in leadership positions. Mr. Coyne retired from the Rhode Island Attorney General's office in January 2019, after serving an unprecedented 20 years as the state's Deputy Attorney General, spanning three administrations. In that role, he supervised 235 employees, including nearly 100 attorneys, spread over four divisions, and oversaw the daily operations of the office and its $31 million budget.

A recognized expert in the management of attorneys general offices, Mr. Coyne regularly collaborated with leaders in other AG offices and with the National Association of Attorneys General (NAAG) on matters of national significance. He frequently led review teams for NAAG to provide expertise to other attorneys general, and regularly presented on management topics at NAAG meetings. Mr. Coyne also represented NAAG on the American Bar Association's Task Force on Corporate Monitor Standards.

Since 1999, Mr. Coyne has served as a member of the Rhode Island Supreme Court's Character and Fitness Committee and was designated by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court to serve as the Committee's Vice Chair (2007-2012) and Chair (2012-present).

In 2011, Mr. Coyne received the "Marvin Award" which is presented annually to an individual on the staff of a state attorney general who has "achieved outstanding results of national impact for the states and the National Association of Attorneys General." That same year, he received the Neil J. Houston, Jr. award, presented annually by Rhode Island Justice Assistance to "celebrate dedicated service and citizen contribution towards the criminal justice profession and the public interest." In 2018, he was presented with a "Meritorious Service Award" by NAAG for career achievement and contributions to the attorney general community.

Upon graduation from law school, Mr. Coyne served for five years on active duty in the United States Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps. From 1988-1994, he served as a prosecutor in the Criminal Division of the Attorney General's office, focusing on organized crime and environmental crime. He subsequently worked for six years in private practice, concurrently serving as Legal Counsel to the Majority Leader of the Rhode Island House of Representatives.

Mr. Coyne is a 1983 graduate of Suffolk University Law School and a 1980 graduate of Boston College. He has also completed studies at the Kennedy School of Government and the Naval Justice

School.