Andrew Glick is a Compliance Associate at Affiliated Monitors, Inc. (“AMI”) focusing on corporate services. Mr. Glick helps monitor the conditions imposed on organizational clients by federal and state government agencies as part of settlement agreements or orders and conducts proactive corporate ethics and compliance assessments.

Prior to joining AMI, Mr. Glick was a litigation associate in Baltimore, Maryland with Wright, Constable & Skeen, LLP, where he focused on corporate and business law, insurance defense, employment law, and maritime and transportation law. Mr. Glick represented clients in civil matters before both state and federal courts and was involved in all aspects of litigation from inception, through discovery and pre-trial, to case resolution.

Mr. Glick previously served as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Melanie M. Shaw of the Appellate Court of Maryland. In that role, he researched complex civil, criminal, and administrative issues and drafted legal opinions.

Mr. Glick holds a J.D. from the University of Baltimore School of Law and a BA in Political Science and History from Gettysburg College. During law school, he interned in the Major Investigations Unit at the Baltimore City State’s Attorney’s Office, was a corporate counsel intern for a regional healthcare network, and served as a judicial intern on the Maryland Court of Special Appeals. Mr. Glick is a licensed member of the Maryland State Bar and District of Columbia Bar.
